INT. LIVING ROOM - DAY

The scene is shot from Lara the dog's perspective. Maria (35) is sitting down, looking very serious. Paco (40) is pacing around behind her.

PACO

I get home, tired from work,
and I'm greeted with this.

Maria, cross, points towards the camera.

MARIA

Look! Look at the face she's just made.

Paco picks up a broken mug

PACO

My cup, my favorite cup, the one
I've watched every single Barcelona game with. She's broken it...
she's broken it.

MARIA

What have you done? Lara, lovey, what have you done? We have not brought you up to behave like this.

Paco fishes a TV remote dripping out of a jug of water.

PACO

And the TV remote...it's died, k
aput, it doesn't work.

Angrily, he drops it back into the jug of water .

MARIA

I've told you so many times,
not the remote, not the remote.

We now see Lara, who is actually a dog, is covered in loo roll.

BOTH

What have you done? What have you done?

MARTA (age 10) appears.

MARTA

Mum, mum, I have done my science assignment. (then, very surprised):
What's happened?

MARIA

The dog again. Come on, it's dinner time. I have already laid the table.

They leave and when she is alone, the girl looks evilly at LARA, picks up a mobile phone and drops it into the jug of water next to the remote. Laughing she gives the dog the Shush! gesture and she turns around. She has a roll of loo roll hidden behind her back.

LARA looks at her with resignation.
